Man Arrested After Threatening Girlfriend with a Knife

Manchester Police responded to a Montgomery Street address at 2:40 a.m. this morning for a domestic related criminal threat involving a knife. Upon arrival, officers spoke with a 26-year old female victim inside of the apartment.

The woman stated her boyfriend has left the residence prior to police arrival. She identified him as arrested; Michael Curran, 27 of Manchester, New Hampshire. She stated Curran arrived home later than expected, which prompted a verbal argument. A short while later, Curran allegedly grabbed a kitchen knife and threatened to kill her while chasing her into a bedroom. She stated Curran allegedly attempted to stab her, but an unknown friend intervened and removed him from the residence.

Curran vacated the residence, but was located in Goffstown a short time later. Curran was eventually transported to police headquarters and charged with Criminal Threatening and Felon in Possession of a Deadly Weapon. He was schedule to appear in the 9th Circuit Court-Manchester on May 4, 2016.
