Manchester Police Directive

Re: Motorized Parade and Procession Requirements

Effective July 1, 2014, the Manchester Police Department set the following guidelines as they pertain to motorized parade and procession (i.e., motorcycle runs) within the City of Manchester:

- Event organizers will be required to obtain an event permit and provide insurance coverage for the event as defined by the City Clerk's Office.
- Any and all organizations will be required to hire police detail officers for traffic control within the City of Manchester. The Police Department Traffic Unit Supervisor will determine the number of detail officers needed after assessing the request of the organization
- A minimum 30 days advanced notice will be required before all events, with exceptions at the discretion of the Traffic Supervisor.
