

Long Term Disability Insurance

Benefit Highlights

City of Manchester

What is long term disability insurance?	Long term disability insurance pays you a portion of your earnings if you miss time at work because of a disabling illness or injury. This highlight sheet is an overview of your long term disability insurance. Once a group policy is issued to your employer, a certificate of insurance will be available to explain your coverage in detail.
What is disability?	Disability is defined in The Hartford's contract with your employer. Typically, disability means that you cannot perform one or more of the essential duties of your occupation due to injury, sickness, pregnancy or other medical conditions covered by the insurance, and as a result, your current monthly earnings are 80% or less than your pre-disability earnings. Core Plan: Once you have been disabled for 24 months, your benefit will end. Optional: Once you have been disabled for 24 months, you must be prevented from performing one or more of the essential duties of any occupation and as a result, your current monthly earnings are 60% or less than your pre-disability earnings.
Am I eligible?	You are eligible if you are an active full time employee who works at least 30 hours per week on a regularly scheduled basis.
How much coverage would I have?	Your Employer Plan and the Optional Plan provides coverage that pays you a benefit of 60% of your earnings to a maximum monthly benefit of $5,000 per month. These plans include a minimum benefit of the greater of: 10% of the benefit based on Monthly Income Loss before the deduction of Other Income Benefits or $100 per month. Earnings are defined as in The Hartford's contract with your employer.
When can I enroll?	Enrollment in Optional Long Term Disability Insurance that you purchase is determined by your Employer on an annual basis.
When is it effective?	Coverage goes into effect subject to the terms and conditions of the policy. Benefits with The Hartford will be effective the first of the month following the date you enter an eligible group, whichever is later. You must be actively at Work with your employer on the day your coverage takes effect.
How long do I have to wait before I can receive my benefit?	You must be disabled for at least 180 days until you can receive your Long Term Disability Insurance benefit payment.

The Hartford® is The Hartford Financial Services Group, Inc. and its subsidiaries including issuing companies Hartford Life Insurance Company, Hartford Life and Accident Insurance Company and Hartford Fire Insurance Company. Home Office is Hartford, CT.

Are there other limitations to enrollment? (optional LTD only)	The guaranteed issue amount is the amount of insurance that you may elect without providing evidence of insurability. If this is the first time you are eligible to elect coverage, evidence of insurability is not required. If you did not elect coverage the first time it was offered to you, evidence of insurability is required to elect coverage. Evidence of insurability is also required to make a change to enhance your current coverage. This coverage, like most group benefit insurance, requires that a certain percentage of eligible employees participate. If that group participation minimum is not met, the insurance coverage that you have elected may not be in effect.
I already have long term disability insurance coverage through my employer; do I have to do anything?	If you take no action, your coverage will automatically continue with The Hartford subject to the terms of the contract.
Can the duration or amount of my benefit be reduced?	Yes. Your benefit duration may be reduced once you reach certain ages as specified in The Hartford's contract with your employer. In addition, as described below within the important details, your monthly long-term benefit may be reduced by other income you receive.
How long will my disability payments continue?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Option 1: If you become disabled prior to age 66, benefits may continue for as long as you remain disabled or 2 years. If your disability occurs at age 66 or above, the number of payments may reduce. • Option 2: If you become disabled prior to age 63, benefits may continue for as long as you remain disabled or until you reach your Social Security normal retirement age. If your disability occurs at age 63 or above, the number of payments may reduce.

Important Details

The following is an overview of your long term disability insurance. Once a group policy is issued to your employer, a certificate of insurance will be available to explain your coverage in detail.

Exclusions:

You cannot receive long term disability insurance benefit payments for disabilities that are caused or contributed to by:

- war or act of war (declared or not)
- the commission of, or attempt to commit a felony
- an intentionally self-inflicted injury
- any case where your being engaged in an illegal occupation was a contributing cause to your disability

You must be under the regular care of a physician to receive benefits.

Mental Illness, Alcoholism and Substance Abuse:

- You can receive benefit payments for long-term disabilities resulting from mental illness, alcoholism and substance abuse for a total of 24 months for all disability periods during your lifetime.
- Any period of time that you are confined in a hospital or other facility licensed to provide medical care for mental illness, alcoholism and substance abuse does not count toward the 24 months lifetime limit.

Pre-existing Conditions:

Your insurance limits the benefits you can receive for pre-existing conditions. In general, if you were diagnosed or received care for a condition before the effective date of your policy, you will be covered for a disability due to that condition only if:

- you have not received treatment for your condition for the length of time specified in the contract before the effective date of your insurance, or
- you have been insured under this coverage for the length of time specified in the contract prior to your disability commencing, so you can receive benefits even if you're receiving treatment, or
- you have already satisfied the pre-existing condition requirement of your previous insurer.

Your benefit payments will be reduced by other income you receive or are eligible to receive due to your disability, such as:

- Social Security disability insurance (please see next section for exceptions)
- workers' compensation
- other employer-based insurance coverage you may have
- unemployment benefits
- settlements or judgments for income loss
- retirement benefits that your employer fully or partially pays for (such as a pension plan)

Your benefit payments will not be reduced by certain kinds of other income, such as:

- retirement benefits if you were already receiving them before you became disabled
- retirement benefits that are funded by your after-tax contributions
- your personal savings, investments, IRAs or Keoghs
- profit-sharing
- most personal disability policies
- Social Security increases

This benefit highlights sheet is an overview of the long term disability insurance being offered and is provided for illustrative purposes only and is not a contract. It in no way changes or affects the policy as actually issued. Only the insurance policy issued to the policyholder (your employer) can fully describe all of the provisions, terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions of your insurance coverage.
