The MECRS will conduct a fall benefit seminar on September 9th, 2014 at the Puritan Conference Center, 245 Hooksett Road. Sessions begin at 8:00 a.m. and run until noon but if you register to be there at 7:30, you can join us for a buffet breakfast. The seminar is entitled:

Understanding the Pillars of Your Retirement Income (Social Security, City Retirement & Savings)

This seminar will feature speakers from the MECRS (City Retirement), the Social Security Administration, and Mass Mutual Financial Group (457 Deferred Comp). The objective of this year's seminar will be to help participants clearly understand the sources and amounts available to them, to financially support them in their retirement years. A representative of the McLane Law Firm will also present a session on Trust & Estate Planning, because the absence of a plan for end of life events, can result in actions you might otherwise wish to avoid.

There is no cost to attend, but registration is required and seating may be limited, so don't delay calling because this seminar only comes along every two years. (Spouses are welcomed too)

To register call 624-6506

Monday-Friday 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

All participants will be eligible to win a gift certificate for dinner at "The Puritan".

A drawing will be held at the conclusion of the seminar and you must be present to win.
