Tax Collector's Office Opens for Extended Hours Joins the City Clerk on Tuesday evenings to serve residents

MANCHESTER, NH - - The Office of the Tax Collector will extend its' business hours on Tuesday evenings until 8:00pm. Staff will be on hand for city residents to pay their taxes and vehicle registration fees.

"In January the hours of the City Clerks office were extended to accommodate the needs of the public. This pilot program was extremely successful. Based on the feedback we've received, and the services residents would like offered, the Tax Collector's Office will also begin to offer extended service hours," commented Manchester Mayor Ted Gatsas.

The Office of the Tax Collector will open from 8:00am to 8:00pm beginning on Tuesday, March 9, 2010 and be open, along with the Office of the City Clerk, for extended business hours every Tuesday thereafter.
