Collection Description

The collection consists entirely of school directories for the City of Manchester's public school buildings. The directories list the names of administration, faculty, and staff of each public school. Students are not included in the directories. Directories also list other details depending on the year, such as addresses, phone numbers, and salaries. Some directories listed retired teachers and janitors, while others provided specialized details, such as in the 1944-1945 directory which lists men who were granted a leave of absence for military service.

In addition to identifying faculty and staff from a specific year and/or school, the directories also contain the names of School Board members, the names of schools which were in use during the specific year, and provide an outline of educational programs within each school (i.e. English, mathematics, Latin, etc.).

The directories are arranged chronologically by school-year.
