New Hampshire Central R. R. Surrender

At a meeting of the Directors of the Merrimack & Connecticut River Rail Road holden at Manchester in the State of New Hampshire on the 9th day of July A. D. 1855. "It having been made to appear to the Board of Directors, that the New Hampshire Central Rail Road Company have not complied with and fulfilled the stipulations contained in the bonds issued by the said New Hampshire Central Railroad Company agreeably to the terms of an indenture made January 24. 1851. by and between the then Directors of said New Hampshire Central Railroad Company and a Board of Trustees selected and appointed to take and hold a mortgage of said Road to secure payments to such persons as might become holders of such bonds - The said New Hampshire Railroad Company having failed to pay or cause to be paid the accruing interest upon said bonds, according to the tenor thereof - therefore it was Voted - That the President of this Corporation be authorized and directed to execute a deed of surrender to George W. Nesmith, Onslow Stearns and George A. Kettell, a Board of Trustees, existing under the Indenture before mentioned, of the possession of the said New Hampshire Central Railroad - with all the property - rights - and privileges thereto belonging (particularly mentioned and described in said Indenture) with all improvements made upon said property, and all additions made thereto since the date of said Indenture - to be held by said Trustees to the uses and purposes in said Indenture mentioned -

Now therefore, Be it known that the said Merrimack & Connecticut River Railroad, for the consideration of One Dollar received by them of the said George W. Nesmith Onslow Stearns and George A Kettell, Trustees as aforesaid, does hereby transfer over, yield up, surrender and deliver to said Nesmith Stearns and Kettell as such Trustees, all the property, rights and privileges which were mortgaged by the said New Hampshire Central Railroad Company to Daniel Blake - Frederick H. Stark and Isaac Hamlton, Trustees selected and appointed to hold said mortgage for the benefit of such persons as might become holders of the Bonds of said New Hampshire Railroad Company - the said property rights and privileges being particularly mentioned and described in said mortgage or Indenture, and containing and including the Railroad, commonly known as the New Hampshire Railroad, with all its appendages, reference to said mortgage being had for a more particular description of the property rights and privileges aforesaid (said Mortgage being recorded in the Hillsborough County Records Vol. 266. Page 264. and in the Merrimack County Records Vol. 104 - pages 111. 112. 113. 114. 115. & 116.) with all improvements made upon said property - and all additions made thereto since the date of said Mortgage or Indenture with all the power, right and title which the said Merrimack & Connecticut River Railroad have to run and use the said New Hampshire Central Railroad and receive the tolls thereof.

To Have and to Hold, all the above surrendered property to the said Nesmith, Steams and Kettell, and their Successors, who may be appointed in conformity to the provisions of said Indenture or Mortgage, for the uses and purposes mentioned therein, and for no other. In Witness Whereof, the said Merrimack & Connecticut River Railroad has by Anthony Colby whose name is hereto appended, and who is duly authorized for this purpose, caused its corporate seal to be affixed this 20th day of July A.D. 1855;

Executed & delivered in presence of -

H.O. Brackett
Wm. D. Foster

The Merrimack & Connecticut River Railroad by
