

Utility Rebates

The funds come from the utilities for the energy work performed in Manchester. This money does not get repaid and is reinvested in other energy projects in the school district and the city. The two utilities in questions are PSNH (Public Service Company of New Hampshire) and NGRID (National GRID).